ACADEMIC TRAINING

Software Analysis and development
SENA                 2023 - 2024

PERSONAL PROFILE

apprentice in Software Analysis and Development at SENA, my journey is centered around exploring and mastering the fascinating world of front-end development. My passion lies in creating engaging and user-friendly experiences, and I am thrilled to learn and apply the latest technologies in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. My goal is to refine my skills to bring creatively functional interfaces to life. Through this journey, I aim not only to build visually appealing applications but also to deeply understand the principles of interactive design and usability.
